WEEKLY REFLECTION

March 26, 2017
4th Sunday of Lent

"Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the Lord looks into the heart." 1 Samuel 16:7

How often do we invest our time, talent and treasure in creating an appearance that does not matter at all to God? We strive to impress with our clothing, home, career, possessions, car and other marks of distinction. But none of these illusions of greatness will impress God. Instead, He will look into our hearts to see how much we loved Him, how much we loved others and how we showed that love by the way we used our time, talents and treasure here on earth.

SEED March Madness is almost over!

Sr. Elizabeth Guerrero, Director of Parish Social Ministry and Hispanic Ministry for the parish has announced that she will be leaving at the end of June. She will be moving back to the Missionary Catechists of Divine Providence convent in San Antonio. As many of you know Sr. Elizabeth is still in formation as a sister of the MCDP order. We have been fortunate to have her with us for so long. But as Sr. Elizabeth said when she announced her departure to the parish staff, "Sisters, like priests, are often called to move on." We will be planning a thank you gathering near the time of her departure.

PARISH NURSING MINISTRY

Do Not Worry! Stress seems to be a chronic problem for many people. Here are a few helpful hints. Never borrow from the future. If you worry about what may happen tomorrow and it does not happen, you have worried in vain. Even if it does happen, you have to worry twice. Say "no" to projects that will not fit into your time schedule or that will compromise your mental health. Separate worries from concerns. If a situation is a concern, find out what God would have you do and let go of the anxiety. If you cannot do anything about it, let it go. Do something for the child in you every day. Every night before bed, think of one thing you are grateful for that you have never been grateful for before!

26 de marzo de 2017 - 4º domingo de Cuaresma

“Dios no ve como lo hace el hombre, porque el hombre ve las apariencias, pero el Señor mira el corazón.” 1 Samuel 16:7

¿Con qué frecuencia invertimos nuestro tiempo, talentos y tesoros en crear una apariencia que a Dios no le importa en absoluto? Nos esforzamos para impresionar con nuestra ropa, hogar, carrera, posesiones, automóvil y otras marcas distintivas. Pero ninguna de estas ilusiones de grandeza impresionará a Dios. En todo caso, Él mirará en nuestros corazones para ver cuánto lo amamos, cuánto amamos a otros y cómo mostramos ese amor por la forma en que usamos nuestro tiempo, talentos y tesoros aquí en la tierra.
